

Stirling Adult Learner's Charter

Adult Learning is:

- learning for all
- any opportunity for a person to learn or develop skills and knowledge

Adult Learning can:

- improve your lifestyle
- widen your horizons
- build your confidence
- help you meet new people
- help you change direction
- help you develop talents
- help you get where you want to go

Learners' Rights

Adult Learning should:

- be a positive experience
- be a purposeful activity
- provide knowledge/skills/self confidence
- aim to promote and provide access for all
- meet the needs of the individual

Learners can expect:

before:

- written course information
- a chance to talk about the course
- help and advice on meeting course costs
- premises and equipment appropriate to content during:

- a safe and healthy environment
- all participants to be treated with equal respect
- competent course tutors
- a chance to comment on the course
- clear path/structure
- able to discuss "how am I getting on?"

and finally:

- an end result
- chance to comment on the course
- information on the next step

Learners are expected to:

- respect others
- be responsible
- participate