As this was the inaugural meeting of the new Community Council, the meeting was opened by Helen Geddes of Stirling Council, who welcomed the new members and conducted the election of office bearers:

Chair: Ros Dingwall,
Vice-Chairman; Paul Owen
Secretary: John Fraser,
Treasurer: Maureen Campbell
Planning Correspondent; Fiona McEwan
Minutes secretary: Sue Russell

Short discussion followed on the re-alignment of boundaries for multi-member wards. No objections were raised to the proposed minor adjustments. A request to change Strathard's boundary with Trossachs CC has been received from Trossachs CC. This would move the area from the Toll House to the Loch Achray Hotel, within their boundary. No objection from Strathard, who feel that Trossachs is better placed to serve this area, but better maps were requested showing our current boundaries more clearly. Constitution to be signed and returned. Helen also reminded the meeting that follow-up elections to fill vacancies on the CC will take place soon – nominations to be in by Feb 9th. Strathard still has one vacancy in Kinlochard. A seminar on the Planning Process will take place in Viewforth on 20th Jan. More info to follow.

Helen then handed the meeting over to the chair for the normal business.
